The Vermont Chamber of Commerce

Whether you own a small bed and breakfast in the Northeast Kingdom, or you're the CEO of a large corporation in southern Vermont, the Vermont Chamber of Commerce is working for you. As Vermont's leading business organization, we provide a strong voice for the business community.

With nearly 1,500 member businesses, the Vermont Chamber of Commerce is the largest statewide private, not-for-profit business organization, representing nearly every sector of the state's commercial and hospitality communities. Our mission is to create an economic climate conducive to business growth and the preservation of the Vermont quality of life.

Benefits of Membership

What makes us unique is our ability to provide leadership and offer benefits that are valuable to each of our members, centering around networking, advocacy, marketing, and education.

Growth Markets

The Vermont Chamber pro-actively covers Vermont's new and emerging, high-growth sectors and industries, including: Hospitality & Tourism, Aviation & Tourism, Technology, Environmental, and Healthcare

Visitors make more than 14 million person trips to Vermont every year and help grow Vermont's lodging and tourism industry. Vermont's $2 billion aerospace and aviation industry also offers the people and businesses in Quebec with trading opportunities in key sectors, such as carbon composites, plastics, ceramics and precision machining.
